The book includes chapters by Harvey Benstein, Richard Clary, Steve Davis, Rodney Dorsey, Amanda Drinkwater, Patrick Dunnigan, Richard Floyd, Robert Halseth, Robert Ponto, Robert Taylor, and Frank Wickes. With a foreword by Craig Kirchhoff, "Starting Out Right: Beginning Band Pedagogy" is the only complete resource for organizing planning and teaching beginning woodwind, brass, and percussion students. The book covers every aspect of teaching beginning band students from the first sounds on the instruments through the first full band performances. It is the only comprehensive reference that offers step by step guidelines for teaching each beginning band instrument as well as organizing and running a successful beginning band program. Based on the public school teaching experience of the author, the book is designed for use in undergraduate methods and pedagogy classes as well as for clinics and workshops at the undergraduate and graduate levels. This book is also designed to be a reference for the many novice teachers who lead beginning bands or those teachers whose expertise is not in the band realm while the focus of the book is on teaching beginning band. Much of the book can be of use to band instructors at any grade level. The book is divided into several parts which cover the sound to sign to theory approach to teaching musical literacy, child development as it relates to teaching music, recruiting and retaining students, developing fundamental sounds and skills on each woodwind, brass, and percussion instrument, teaching students to read tonal and rhythmic music notation, and selecting and rehearsing beginning band solo, ensemble, and full band music. The book also addresses curriculum... design scheduling and staffing of band programs ideas about managing student records inventory and equipment are also given special attention written in a casual narrative style the book features real world examples of how the principles in the book might be applied to actual teaching situations another special feature of the book is a set of early field experience application exercises starting out	right guides readers as they explore a comprehensive individual and ensemble approach to teaching each woodwind brass and percussion instrument meredith music resource reading this book soon

Teaching Instrumental Music 2007

in the musician's way veteran performer and educator Gerald Klickstein combines the latest research with his 30 years of professional experience to provide aspiring musicians with a roadmap to artistic excellence. Part I: Artful Practice describes strategies to interpret and memorize compositions, fuel motivation, collaborate, and more. Part II: Fearless Performance lifts the lid on the hidden causes of nervousness and shows how musicians can become confident performers. Part III: Lifelong Creativity surveys tactics to prevent music-related injuries and equips musicians to tap their own innate creativity. Written in a conversational style, the musician's way presents an inclusive system for all instrumentalists and vocalists to advance their musical abilities and succeed as performing artists.

Peter Schumann and his Bread Puppet Theater are likely the most important and surely the longest lasting contributors to modern American theater history since the early sixties. Schumann and his puppeteers have been pouring out work after work on every scale: political works, mysterious works, grand works, modest works, works on the street, and works in fields. Works to be played in every size theater on four continents. Books, prints, posters, and banners which live as show and tell in so many homes. Now Ron Simon and Marc Estrin, a remarkable photographer and a long-time puppeteer who have each in his own way contributed to the shows, recorded events, and reflected on them out of their experiences. They have created: rehearsing with gods, photographs, and essays on the Bread Puppet.
theater far more than history or documentation they identify eight archetypes engaged repeatedly by peter schumann and his crew their book consists of parallel meditations the texts not commenting on the photos the photos not illustrating the texts unified and intertwined by the chapter themes of death fiend beast human world gift bread and hope altogether it s a collaboration that reflects their sixty odd man years of personal experience in hidden narratives of and speculative reflections on peter schumann s projects ever more relevant to our times this is a book that will engage both fans and newcomers an inside view of peter schumann s political artistic world
