This book has been written to share my life experience and explain how my spiritual growth came about. My aim in writing this book is to help others by sharing the contents. My narrative starts with events from my early life with memories of childhood in a fairly dysfunctional family. I describe much hardship and insecurity first with my mother leaving home and later the death of my beloved father, which was the catalyst for my spiritual growth. Several years ago, I invited my daughter and nephew to join me in a home circle to help them develop their spiritual gifts. My daughter developed the gift of spirit portrait drawings, my nephew the gifts of healing and trance mediumship. Through his gift, many wonderful spirit helpers spoke bringing with them teachings and wisdom. As the book progresses and the trance mediumship grows stronger, I gradually introduce this wonderful love and wisdom from the higher life. Lilpah and Jac Owen are siblings torn apart, one taken, one broken, and they are separated for thirty years. Will they find a way home or is that a journey too far?

In 1839, Lilpah and Jac Owen are two young siblings thrust into a violent household. Lilpah endures in the house of Sir Hugh Rigg, but Jac escapes the brutality, shipwrecked with his friend Ben off the coast of Korea. Jac is taken in by the Cheyju Islanders who help heal the wounds of his past. Lilpah bears a child to Sir Hugh. Survival is hard for them, and they rely on their one friend Tippy to protect her child from the monster who is her father. They can be deceit, blackmail, and betrayal through the dangers of the Opium War to the explosive goldfields of Victoria. Jac lives comfortably on the River Murray South Australia but his hard-won security is threatened when a small entourage of businessmen arrives headed by Sir Hugh and his mistress Lilpah. At their meeting, Jac is desperate for a reconciliation with his sister but Lilpah after years of abuse reaches a damming decision. There is only one shocking solution.
the American auto industry would see the births and deaths of several manufacturers, great technological advances, and an era of dramatic styling as a prospering nation asserted its growing mobility. Cars of this period are among the most iconic vehicles ever built in the United States: the 1949 Ford, the remarkable Studebaker designs of 1950 and 1953, the 1955-1957 Chevrolets, the forward look Chrysler products, the ill-fated Edsel, and many others. This comprehensive reference book details every model from each of the major manufacturers, including independents such as Kaiser-Frazer and Crosley, but excluding very low-volume marques such as Tucker. From model years 1946 through 1959, year by year it provides an overview of the industry and market, followed by an individual report on each company. Its main news for the year included introductions or cancellations of models, new engines and transmissions, advertising themes, sales trends, etc. Its production figures and market shares are detailed, along with powertrain offerings, paint colors, and major options. The company's models are then detailed individually with such information as body styles, prices, dimensions, and weights. Standard equipment, production figures, and more are included. Nearly 1,000 photographs are included. If Daisy and Dad swapped around, she could feed Dad porridge while she ate chocolate fromage frais, and she could wheel him past the neighbours all dressed in pink. Dad thinks it would be great not to have to do any cleaning or cooking but to visit the zoo and play in the park instead. An irresistibly charming picture book, wonderful for fathers and daughters, and the whole family to share. Discover how to develop your pottery design skills and bring your ideas to life from start to finish, covering every technique from throwing pottery to firing glazing to sgraffito.
