sleeping there’s just one problem it’s a school night and mum’s not happy from the winner of the Roald Dahl Funny Prize comes a warm and witty look at the life of one special teddy bear. Travel with him as he comes from his factory to his first home from the charity shop to a new home but what can he do best when there are other bears who make themselves very useful? Indeed with a heartwarming story and tender illustrations Jeanette Bradley’s debut picture book Love Mama is perfect for Valentine’s Day, Mother’s Day, and any day when a child needs a reminder of the strength of a mother’s love. When Mama leaves her young Penguin Kipling he knows she’ll return home soon yet he still can’t help but miss her after all pillow Mama won’t read, picture Mama won’t laugh and snow Mama is too cold to cuddle but then Kipling receives a special delivery from Mama including a note that reads, “My love for you stretches across the wide ocean through day and night from earth to sky and back again and Kipling knows that no matter where Mama is he is loved.” Soon Mama comes home and Kipling ends the day where he belongs right in her arms for twenty-two years.

Katherine Bouton had a secret that grew harder to keep every day. An editor at The New York Times at daily editorial meetings she couldn’t hear what her colleagues were saying she had gone profoundly deaf in her left ear her right was getting worse as she once put it she was the kind of person who might have used an ear trumpet in the nineteenth century audiologists agree that we re experiencing a national epidemic of hearing impairment at present 50 million americans suffer some degree of hearing loss 17 percent of the population and hearing loss is not exclusively a product of growing old the usual onset is between the ages of nineteen and forty four and in many cases the cause is unknown shouting won t help is a deftly written deeply felt look at a widespread and misunderstood phenomenon in the style of jerome groopman and atul gawande and using her experience as a guide bouton examines the problem personally psychologically and physiologically she speaks with doctors audiologists and neurobiologists and with a variety of people afflicted with midlife hearing loss braiding their stories with her own to illuminate the startling effects of the condition the result is a surprisingly engaging account of what it s like to live with an invisible disability and a robust prescription for our nation s increasing problem with deafness a kirkus reviews best nonfiction book of 2013 celebrate st patrick s day in this installment of natasha wing s best selling series a fun read aloud sure to keep kids engaged and laughing out loud it’s the night before St Patrick’s Day and Tim and Maureen are wide awake setting traps to catch a leprechaun when they wake the next morning to the sound of their dad playing the bagpipes and the smell of their mom cooking green eggs they’re shocked to find that they’ve actually caught a leprechaun but will they be able to find his pot of gold? Natasha Wing’s sweet story is once again told in verse to the same meter of Clement Moore’s classic.

Wemberly worried about everything big things, little things, and things in between then it was time for school to start and Wemberly worried even more if you ever worry or know someone who does this is the book for you an artful mixture of fantasy and reality humor and heart Maya was grumpy celebrates the power of imagination and humor to improve moods Maya wakes up on the wrong side of the bed tangled in her blanket and in a crispy cranky grumpy grouchy mood she doesn’t want to color or wear her favorite shorts or go outside to play what’s worse she’s determined to share her grumpiness with everyone as she glumps clumps and thumps around the house but when Maya growls at her grandmother she graciously takes Maya’s mood in stride and even has a solution Gramma suggests a series of unusual activities that Maya will probably not want to do since she’s feeling grumpy and then dismisses her own silly suggestions before Maya can reject them. Children will find it hard to keep from smiling as they watch Maya's grouchiness dissolve into glee at Granna's giggle-inducing ideas while adults will find Granna's clever tactic a useful strategy to add to their repertoire when kids are grumpy. A hula hooping moose, a badger with a bumblebee umbrella, a rabbit in a cashmere sweater, and a very wet bear star in this unpredictable and laugh out loud picture book in which having fun gets the best of a grumpy bear. It looks like a wet and dreary day for Bear and his trio of friends. How could he possibly have fun when he is soaked, but Badger, Rabbit, and Moose don't seem to mind. In fact, Moose can still hula hoop and it looks like so much fun might be to try here. Is a story that shows that fun is not dependent on sunshine and blue skies; in fact, it might be more fun to be soaked. What is a family once it was said to be a father, mother, boy, girl, cat, and dog living in a house with a garden. But as times have changed, families have changed too, and now there are almost as many kinds of families as colours of the rainbow. From a mum and dad or single parent to two mums or two dads from a mixed race family to children with different mums and dads to families with a disabled member. Mary Hoffman takes a look through children's eyes at the wide varieties of family life from homes food ways of celebrating schools and holidays to getting around jobs and housework from extended families languages and hobbies to pets and family trees and she concludes that for most people their own family is the best

With a heartwarming story and tender illustrations, Jeanette Bradley’s debut picture book Love Mama is perfect for Valentine’s Day, Mother’s Day, and any day when a child needs a reminder of the strength of a mother’s love. When Mama leaves her young Penguin Kipling, he knows she’ll return home soon, yet he still can’t help but miss her. After all, Pillow Mama won’t read, Picture Mama won’t laugh, and Snow Mama is too cold to cuddle. But then Kipling receives a special delivery from Mama, including a note that reads “My love for you stretches across the wide ocean through day and night from earth to sky and back again, and Kipling knows that no matter where Mama is, he is loved.” Soon, Mama comes home and...
