In America is a 2002 drama film directed by Jim Sheridan. The semi-autobiographical screenplay by Jim Sheridan and his daughters Naomi and Kirsten focuses on an immigrant Irish family's struggle to start a new life in New York.

It's not the typical story of turn-of-the-century immigrants facing prejudice and struggle but a modern story set in the 1980s and involving new sets of problems such as racism and the drug addiction in the building and the neighborhood.
