Communicating in Small Groups 2015

Presentations in everyday life began with one simple question: what do real people want and need to know about presentation speaking? The second edition continues to provide practical, time-tested answers to this question using the most current communication theory and research available. The authors employ a straightforward approach to appeal to the diverse student body enrolled in introductory public speaking courses. They also place a solid emphasis on the how-tos of selecting the best strategies and developing the necessary skills to become effective speakers. This edition maintains a flexible modular configuration while adding an updated design and enhanced art to help reinforce understanding of concepts covered in the text. A greater emphasis on cultural diversity speaks to a wide range of students and adult learners. New presentation principles in action provides students with a hands-on application of chapter concepts through class exercises, questionnaires, speaking assignments, and assessment instruments. Opening questions offer a road map to each chapter. The questions are then answered in context in the chapter summary. Mini modules give step-by-step instruction on presentation techniques often glossed over in other texts. Topics range from microphone use to how to deal with a hostile audience. Real-world real speakers stories told by the authors, presenters, and professionals illustrate chapter principles and strategies in action while offering honest portraits of potential speaking experiences. FAQs provide short answers to questions students have asked. Insider tips, drawn from the authors' own experiences, provide honest portraits of potential speaking experiences. Never tell your audience you're nervous and present more message and less information.

Skilled Interpersonal Communication 2004-06-01

In the 1980s, the San Francisco bay area was heaven for hardcore headbangers. Shunning Hollywood hairspray and image in favor of a more dangerous street appeal, the Bay Area thrash metal scene was home to Exodus, Metallica, Testament, Possessed, Death Angel, Heathen, Violance, Attitude Adjustment, Forbidden, and Blind Illusion. This scene served as a second home to like-minded similar bands like Slayer, Mercyful Fate, Anthrax, Megadeth, and more. Beginning as teenagers, Brian Umlaut Lew and Harald O Oimoen documented the birth and growth of the local metal scene. The book features hundreds of unseen live and candid color and black and white photographs, murder in the front row captures the wild-eyed zeal and drive that made Metallica, Slayer, and Megadeth into legends, with over 100 million combined records sold.
