traveling through text compares religious ravel writing by muslims christians and jews in later middle ages this comparative approach allows us to see that writers in all three religious communities used travel writing in the same way to shape the perceptions of their readers by asserting the author s authority the central paradox of religious travel writing is that the travel writer reads about a place usually in a sacred text decide to supplement the reading with the empirical experience of visiting and describing the place and the creates his own descriptive text but in writing this new book and in letting his readers know his authorial authority the travel writer himself is daring the reader to challenge the new text is a book ever enough for societies that value their sacred texts this question is a challenge but it is a challenge posed by writers who live firmly in the religious tradition many new believers struggle due to a lack of teaching the bible states that we as baby christians should desire the sincere milk of the word that we might grow by it many people get born again and go back into the old lifestyle because they have no root in the word and their foundation is weak i would like to see every new believer become established and grounded in the word so that they have a firm foundation that cannot be moved tests and trials come to each of us and whether we stand or fall depends on the type of foundation our lives are built upon the more we understand the word the stronger our foundation becomes god desires that we take his written word and his revealed word and apply them to our daily lives this book is intended to inspire new believers to go after god to get to know him and to love the word there is no greater joy than knowing the one who came and gave his life that we might live once before god called out a people to be his special people and a priestly nation before the world no again god has called out people to be his and walk before him as an example to all peoples calling the people of the world to him now as then he is ingathering us from the far country to which we had wandered and setting us on our betrothal journey home we can discern much from the first such journey of ingathering that can assist and encourage us as we set out on our own journey of ingathering this is one persons look at what god has told us about our tabernacles and what to expect and watch for along the way it is a walk through gods word searching to see the intent and symbolism contained in the tabernacle temple structure decorations and rituals with an eye to how these thing might apply to us today for we have been told that our bodies are now the temple or tabernacle of the holy spirit and god has told us previously his specifications for maintaining this space properly so that when we go to him he can be found this book looks at what was lost when man was banished at the beginning as this is what will be restored at the end times from there a look was taken at what was elaborated in his word about gods purpose requirements and expectations via the covenants prophets and law the last section concentrates on the tabernacle its specifications attendants and feast day for today each of us is now serving as priest before the presence of the holy spirit within us what if you had done something so unimaginable in your past that you felt you could never be forgiven john mikale a man with a checkered reputation can't begin to shake his guilt for the hurt he caused his daughter chastity and how it scarred so many people in its wake although an uphill battle john diligently strives to make up for lost time by writing chastity letters hoping to bridge the gap john who's now married and expecting another child is haunted by cryptic dreams from which he awakes in terror driven to become a better man he forces himself to face his nightmares and the reality they represent searching for decency within and hoping for a flicker of acceptance from chastity is the only way he knows to release his past and heal both their wounds but how can he expect forgiveness when he can't begin to forgive himself for the hurt he caused chastity wayne finally free from her mother's past is ready to move on with life on the verge of a great relationship and about to start her burgeoning art career she's sucked back into her family saga as she breaks her personal promise never to read her father's letters from the moment the first envelope is opened the emotional freedom she's tried so hard to find is slowly reclaimed word by word facing redemption is a dual storyline that follows the path of an unwanted father and daughter's journey through a trail of self awareness and final acceptance it is also a continuance of the many unanswered questions from finding kylie book one in this series warning i write about characters that struggle with real life issues my characters to date have never done the deed in fact they've chosen the right path with abstaining from their desire for the right reasons however this book will touch on the subject so be aware why does a christian author talk about such things i believe christians are sinners and we're saved by god's grace we're not going to be white as the driven snow and if you think christians should be you're kidding yourself however i believe by accepting jesus that god gives us the strength and desire to be more like him when we re searching for his influence in our lives we're not all going to be there out of the gate and even when we do finally reach that point we're going to fall and stumble why because we sin it's human nature even if we don't want to we're going to mess up that's the beautiful thing about building a relationship with god he takes us where we are hence characters in this book who are going to say something or do something questionable and brings us to where he wants us to be isn't that what it's all about knowing that we all can come to him no matter how badly we've screwed up this is the whole point of grace so heads up to those who have been offended by this or those who may be offended by this please know god loves all of us right where we are and that's whom i'm called to write about
