The Shanghai school system has attracted worldwide attention since its impressive performance in the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) in 2009. The system ranks as a stunning success according to standards of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). Shanghai also stands out for having the world's highest percentage of resilient students from socio-economically disadvantaged backgrounds who emerge as top performers learning from Shanghai lessons on educational success. Offers a close-up view of the people and the policies that have achieved such world-class performance based on research and personal observation gathered during the author's recent fieldwork with school principals, teachers, and students. This book explores the factors that explain Shanghai's exceptional success in education. The approach combines high standards of scholarly research and analysis with the author's unique personal insights as evidenced by chapters entitled 'Education is filling a bucket and lighting a fire' and 'Tiger mothers, dragon children' drawing on her experience as an education professional and a teacher of teachers. Charlene Tan thoroughly examines and analyzes the people, the policies, and the practices that distinguish Shanghai educators. The contents include comprehensive details on the Shanghai approach to quality education from discussion of the balance between centralization and decentralization to school autonomy and accountability to testing policy and professional development for teachers. The book includes detailed tables on curriculum and school performance targets, sample appraisal forms for teachers and students, and dozens of photographs. The author is an Associate Professor at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. A comprehensive writing text for students in all disciplines covers every aspect of the writing process from coming up with an idea to the final written product. Whether it be an essay, exam essay, tutorial paper, or report, it illustrates each stage of the process of writing with examples and models. It offers strategies for the prewriting stage, thinking the question through, defining a purpose, selecting evidence, and choosing a presentation structure. For the writing stage, it constructs introductions and conclusions, sustains a line of argument, and chooses an appropriate level of technicality or generality. And for the editing stage, it reworks sentences ensuring that each paragraph has a focus and that the argument flows well throughout the paper. It contains notes on...
